▶▶ TYPE OF WORK:

contemporary dance, dance theatre

▶▶ ABOUT THE COMPANY

Founded in 1998, the name of the group was inspired by the term „absolute music“, meaning music that follows its own rules and communicates by its own means. The members of this group are young professional dancers, graduates of the School for Classical Ballet and School for Contemporary Dance in Zagreb. From its beginnings, the group has produced three full-length performances, of which two are by Suzana Sliva and one by guest choreographer Fred Lasserre. From 2004, the Ensemble will change its direction, opening towards other Croatian choreographers, thus widening its artistic profile.

The Secret Connection

choreography: Suzana Sliva
number of dancers: 9

The performance is about the exploration of a circle as a geometric form that symbolizes perfection, infinity, the absolute.

▶▶ REVIEW EXTRACT

The dance theatre of Suzana Sliva is outstanding, primarily through ideas that are very well-developed and well-executed by her ensemble. Some scenes... show her sense of humor and openness. The strength, stamina and convincing performance of her dancers are worth mentioning.
