dance and movement theatre

▶▶ ABOUT THE COMPANY

In 1990, dance artist Neda Marović Turković founded Burka company in the town of Samobor thus gathering young people in the area interested in dance art and enabling them to develop awareness of dance as a personal expression of inner processes through movement. She has created a number of performances up to present date.

▶ Her artistic work is based on a broad perception of dance / movement that refuses to exist within the boundaries of either traditional or modern choreography. As a starting point in her work, she chooses improvisation and individual work with bodies, and motivation for the movement is emotion and /or making effort to conquer space. The resulting work is intimate and personalized choreography.
